THE SENTINEL, has much the largest circulation of any paper published in this county—and as an advertising sheet offers superior inducements to merchants and business men generally. Those desirous of making use of this medium for extending their business can do so by either sending their notices direct, or through the following agents:

John Crouse, Esq., Johnstown.
E. W. Carr, Evans' Buildings, Third St. Philadelphia.
Wm. A. Kinsler, Pittsburg.
George Pratt, 151, Nassau St., New York.

FATHER MATTHEW is now at Boston, and in one of his recent letters says that his engagements down east are multiplying so fast upon his hands that he cannot say when he will be able to make his escape. The worthy man expresses himself as highly delighted with the "city of notions" and the people thereabouts.

A mass meeting of the citizens of Philadelphia in favor of Hungary and Freedom was held in Independence Square on Monday evening the 20th inst., and which is characterized by the Pennsylvania as having been "one of the largest and most enthusiastic ever assembled within the precincts of that time honored spot." The Hon. George M. Dallas was appointed President, together with forty-eight Vice Presidents and fourteen Secretaries. Owing to the indisposition of Mr. Dallas, Col. Page acted as President pro tem. A series of excellent resolutions were adopted, in which they call upon the constituted authorities of our own nation, to recognize the Ambassador of Hungary, as soon as he shall present himself properly accredited; and to take the necessary steps to open diplomatic and commercial relations with the country which he represents. An eloquent address to the people of Pennsylvania was reported by Col. Forney and unanimously adopted, after which a number of gentlemen eloquently addressed the vast assemblage, and the meeting wound up with nine cheers for HUNGARY, Kossuth and Freedom!

The Prospects.

The prospects of the democratic party were never more flattering than at present. The result of the elections in the Southern and Western States, held during the present month has been of the most cheering character, and every where the democracy have triumphed, and Taylorism has been repudiated by the people.

In our own State, we every where behold the democracy buckling on their armour and preparing for the contest in October next. Many of the counties have already settled their tickets, and never did there appear to be more unanimity and enthusiasm in the ranks of the party than at present. A firm determination exists to atone for past errors, and if possible redeem the State for the accidents of last year. We feel satisfied that the old Keystone will again be found in line with the democratic States, notwithstanding the efforts of Gov. Johnston and Gen. Taylor by perambulating the State to galvanize the whig party into a show of resistance.

Military Election.

The following gentlemen were elected officers of the "Quitman Guards," at Portage, on last Monday a week. As they are young men of energy and ability, we expect to see them soon able to muster one of the strongest companies in the county.

Captain—Wm. M. Ott.
1st Lieut.—Wm. C. Barbour,
2d Lieut.—Wm. T. Trotter.

We believe there are some eight companies now organized or being organized in this county. Will our friends send us a list of the officers elected by each company?

The Johnstown News is still whining about the "funk out" (as they term it) of Dr. Wm. A. Smith. They are evidently alone in this puny effort to manufacture political capital for their candidate, and the course they have pursued towards Dr. Smith since his nomination cannot be looked upon with any other feelings than those of contempt by the candid of all parties. They would gain much more credit for themselves and for their candidates if they would come out boldly and manfully and give a true statement of the case, and not show their ignorance and their malice by attempting to deny facts which are known to be true by almost every man, woman and child in the county.

As we have before stated, we are prepared to prove at any time that John Fenlon did put his name down, or authorized it to be put down on the roll of the "Cambria Guards" as a volunteer for Mexico, and that he did afterwards flunk out; that he did make speeches not only to the Cambria Guards, but also to the American Highlanders; that he did induce others to volunteer, and used every exertion to raise the company in this place. And this is not all. John Fenlon, in company with Dr. Smith and a number of others, did all in his power to provide for the expenses and wants of the soldiers, to procure the articles necessary for their comfort on their long and perilous journey, and to raise a fund for the support of the families of those who went to Mexico during their absence. In fact both John Fenlon and Dr. Smith conducted themselves in a manner much more satisfactory to the members of the "Cambria Guards" than if they had accompanied them to the battle fields of Mexico, and we have yet to hear the first word spoken by a soldier in condemnation of either of them for the course they pursued in relation to the company.

Now this is the "truth the whole truth and nothing but the truth," and we defy the News-men or any others to deny it. We have nothing against Mr. Fenlon personally. We oppose him on political grounds, and on political grounds we hope to see him defeated. But the course pursued by the News-men towards Dr. Smith is too mean and contemptible for us to imitate. We are perfectly willing to acknowledge that in relation to the Mexican War, Mr. Fenlon did his duty and so did Dr. Smith, and as we are one of those who went to Mexico, we have a right to know the feelings of the soldiers towards them. Are the News-men possessed of sufficient honor to make the amendment honorable, and drop the subject? We will see.

The Late Elections.

We are now in possession of the official returns from nearly all the districts of Alabama, Tennessee and Indiana, and the result of the late elections is as follows:

ALABAMA.

In this State the delegation to Congress stands the same as at the last election, viz:—five democrats and two whigs. In the Senate there are seventeen whigs and sixteen democrats; and in the House there are fifty-six democrats and forty-four whigs, leaving a democratic majority on joint ballot of eleven, which secures the election of two democratic United States Senators.

TENNESSEE.

Trousdale, the democratic candidate for Governor is elected by several thousand. The delegation to Congress stands seven democrats and four whigs, being a gain of three members.

INDIANA.

In this State the democrats have carried almost every thing. In the delegation to Congress there are eight democrats, one whig and one free soiler.

In every State the democratic vote has been largely increased.

The Next Legislature.

The session of the next Legislature will be an important one, and at no time has it been more necessary for the Democratic party in every quarter of the Commonwealth to rally in support of its long cherished principles and Numerous applications will be made for the creation of new banks, as well as for the re-chartering of old ones, and now is the time to guard against the too great increase in the amount of bank capital and paper circulation in the State, and the renewal of charters to unsound institutions.

The people have suffered sufficiently from the circulation of worthless paper, and the explosion of such swindling shops as the, Lumbertons, Towanda, and Lewistown Banks, to say nothing of the operations of the great regular United States Bank of Pennsylvania. All old banks applying for re-charter should undergo a searching and thorough investigation into their condition, previous to receiving a renewed lease of existence, and in the charters of all both old and new should be engrailed the democratic policy of individual liability. This course would assure the people of having a sound circulating medium, but it can only be carried out by returning a majority of democrats to both branches of the Legislature, as the whigs are well known to always legislate in favor of banks and all other corporations.

The apportionment of the State will also have to be made next winter, and upon the complexion of the next Legislature may depend the welfare of the democratic party in Pennsylvania for the next seven years. Every democrat should reflect that upon his vote may depend the success of the measures and policy he professes to cherish. He may determine whether the democratic party shall hereafter be fairly represented in our Legislature, or whether he will permit the whigs to gain the ascendancy, and so gerrymander the State as to prevent the voice of the democracy from being heard. Is there a democrat in Cambria, that would desire to see our county deprived of its separate representation in the House, and again annexed to Somerset, or possibly Blair, or Indiana? If not let him aid in returning a democrat from our county to attend to its interests, and who will also be enabled to oppose all gerrymanders of the State, and thereby secure to the people a fair representation.

The question of the completion of the North Branch Canal—election of Judges by the people, and many other subjects of interest will also come before the next Legislature, and it behooves the democracy not only of our county but in every quarter of the State to lay aside all differences of opinion upon minor subjects, and unite so as to triumphantly elect all their candidates, and secure the future welfare of the party, and our good old Commonwealth.

Appointment by Brig. General McDonald.

GENERAL ORDERS No. 1.

BRIGADE HEAD QUARTERS,
Ebensburg, Aug. 23, 1849.

The General of Brigade commanding the Volunteers of Cambria county, announces the following Staff Appointments, and directs that they be respected and obeyed accordingly, viz: Lieut. W. W. IVORY, of the "American Highlanders," Brigade Major, with the rank of Major.

JOHN S. BUCANAN, Brigade Quartermaster, with the rank of Major.

Wm. LEMON, M. D. Brigade Surgeon.
By order of Brig. Gen. Joseph McDonald,
C. H. HEYER, Aid de-Camp.

All Sorts of Paragraphs.

A TOURNAIMENT is to take place at Shannondale Springs, Va., on the 28th inst.

Nobility in Prussia.—A Prussian judicial journal has lately decided that the Prussian constitution abolishes nobility in that country.

Many of the Roman liberals, it is said, as well as others from various parts of Europe, are about to proceed to the United States.

The latest way to pop the question is to ask the fair lady "if you shall have the pleasure of seeing her to the minister's."

Adamites.—There is said to be a new association of maniacs, we must suppose—formed in Bohemia under the title of "Adamites," all the male members of which assume the name of Adam, while the females take that of Eve. They deny the immortality of the soul, and are practical socialists.

An article in Blackwood's Magazine says that at least 250,000 persons perished by famine in Ireland in 1847, in consequence of the loss of the potato crop, notwithstanding the British Government expended fifty millions of dollars in purchasing food for the population, and extensive donations were received from abroad.

Five of the capitals of Europe are under martial law at present, viz:—Paris, Vienna, Berlin, Rome and Naples. This fact speaks volumes.

Jules Fabre, in a debate in the French Assembly on restricting the freedom of the press, said forcibly that the cause of France's unquiet "was because its republican heart was still enclosed in a monarchial mould."

The Sultan of Turkey, Queen of Great Britain, and the President of the United States, have each given Count Wass, the Hungarian Envoy, a favorable and satisfactory reception. But Louis Napoleon, the President of France, gave him a cold shoulder.

A Yankee writer from San Francisco to a New Haven paper:—A Spanish girl is the best grammar in the world; and since my arrival in town, I have been studying grammar. We suppose he'll conjugate soon, if the girl don't decline.

Father Mathew's Seal.—The private seal of the Rev. Theobald Mathew represents a fountain bursting from a rock, with the following motto: "Drink from the bubbling fountain—drink it free."

'Twas good for Sampson and 'tis good for thee.

Father Mathew.—About 20,000 persons have taken the pledge at Father Mathew's hands, since his arrival in Boston. He has also administered it to many at Watertown and other neighboring places.

A gentleman having married a lady of the name of Lamb, who had very little beauty, but a very great fortune, was told by an acquaintance that he would not have taken the Lamb, had it not been for the fleecy.

The New York Sun says that several heartless physicians in that city have recently refused certificates for interment until their own bills for medical attendance were settled.

Harmless mirth is the best cordial against the consumption of the spirits; wherefore jesting is not unlawful if it trespasseth not in quantity, quality, or season.

Some minds are proportioned to that which may be despatched at once, or within a short return of time; others to that which begins afar off, and is to be won by length and pursuit.

Lawyers and Mechanics.—The New York Mirror, in a late number says: "The bar is no longer the resort of the ambitious youths of our country. The mechanical departments are beginning to be preferred. There are now twenty-six young gentlemen in this city, that have received liberal educations, who are serving their times as shipwrights, carpenters, &c. In a few years the United States will have the most accomplished mechanics in the world. The union of a substantial education with mechanical skill will effect this."

What a delightful place Lowell must be? In nine of the manufactories at Lowell there are Six thousand four hundred and thirty girls employed. We wonder if there are any single men in that place. The mortal whose heart could turn aside the darts from so many fairy shafts, as surely must be directed towards him, cannot certainly possess a soul.

State of Feeling in Canada.

The following handbill was posted on the walls throughout Montreal on Saturday last:

"Murder—The First Anglo-Saxon Blood. Turn out to a man to the Funeral, that you may remember forever the Murdered Victim and the Glorious Cause.—To-morrow morning at ten o'clock, the body of young Mason, (killed by a discharge of musketry at Lafontaine's house) will be carried from Craig street to the grave. Let the shops be all shut up."

The Montreal Pilot, in commenting on this document says that its object is to increase excitement, and to invite bloodshed. The Commander-in-chief has spent the last two nights in traversing the city, visiting and inspecting the military posts.

The Scheme of the Whigs.

We do not complain that Gen. Taylor has taken it into his head to visit Pennsylvania; for we could wish no better advertisement of his utter incapacity at the head of the government, than to let him be heard and seen of all men. But he is accompanied by one of the most unconscionable demagogues in the Union—Wm. F. Johnston—a man who will strain every nerve to create dissensions in the democratic ranks, and to instigate a secret organization among the whigs. The democrats must be up and doing. They must quiet all dissensions, and put their shoulders to the wheel at once. We tell our friends every where in this State that Johnston will sacrifice much to secure a federal majority in the next legislature, so as to have control of the apportionment then to be made. The disputes in the Centre, Lycoming, and Clinton senatorial district, and in Crawford county, should be harmonized promptly in view of the herculean though clandestine efforts of the administration party. A word to the wise ought to be sufficient.—Penn.

The reserve and tactfulness of Washington were proverbial; but as the one was the result of diffidence and not of austerity or pride, so the other proceeded from his habitual prudence rather than coldness, or want of the sensibility that inspires eloquence. In proof of this, it is related of him that when the famous meeting of officers was held at Newburg, to consult upon measures to be taken in consequence of the disbandment of the army by Congress, without securing the reward due to its services, Washington who was known to disapprove of the proceedings, though he sympathized with the feelings which gave rise to it, resolved, nevertheless, to be present. Unwilling to trust to his powers of extempore speaking, he reduced what he meant to say to writing, and commented reading it, without his spectacles, which, at that period, he used only occasionally. He found however, that he could not proceed without them. He stopped, and took them out, and, as he prepared to place them, he exclaimed: "I have grown blind, as well as gray, in the service of my country." This sudden burst of natural eloquence produced, it may be supposed, more effect than anything in his premeditated address.—New York as it Was, by W. A. Duer.
